Textbooks for one or more of your courses are included in the tuition and fee charges for the current semester. In order to purchase your textbooks on your own, please read below and understand your rights and responsibilities when doing so.

- If your financial aid eligibility changes or your award is re-calculated, you will be responsible for any unpaid amount not covered by your aid.
- You will be fully responsible for purchasing and receiving all required textbook(s) for each course on or before your course start date.
- If you “opt-out” through the completion and submission of this form, you will not be permitted to “opt-in” at a later date in your program.
- Your student account will be credited for the reduced textbook/access code charge.

Your signature indicates that you have read and fully understand the conditions surrounding your choice to opt out of receiving your required textbooks through this program.
